Use of inclusive language

We encourage all authors to choose language that is inclusive and respectful. Submissions should not contain anything that might imply that one individual is superior to another on the grounds of race, gender, culture, sexuality, or any other characteristic, and inclusive language should be used throughout. Authors should ensure that writing is free from bias, for instance by using 'he or she', 'his or hers', 'him or her', or the singular gender-neutral 'they, theirs or them'. Further information on our inclusive language policy can be found in the author guidelines.

Quality is at the heart of what Emerald Publishing does. Acting with integrity and transparency, we seek to build partnerships with authors, editors and readers alike. As such, this journal will never:

Dear Ahmad, Akmad and Akmad

Manuscript ID IJHMA-04-2022-0063 entitled "DETERMINANT RESIDENTIAL REAL ESTATE OF MILLENNIAL GENERATION IN ADAPTING HOUSING MICROFINANCE CASE INDONESIA CHAPTER" which you submitted to the International Journal of Housing Markets and Analysis, has been reviewed. The comments of the reviewer(s) are included at the bottom of this letter.

The reviewer(s) have recommended some major revisions and reject to your manuscript. Therefore, I invite you to respond to the reviewer(s)' comments and revise your manuscript as soon as possible.

As editor I have spent time reading your paper and communicating with the reviewers. Initially one reviewer indicated "reject" however they would accept "major revision" if you revised your paper in light of the feedback. So originally your paper would have been reject. However as editor I have decided on "major revision" based on the onus placed on the authors to undertake a major revision of your paper. Please read the feedback carefully and incorporate the suggestions from the three reviewers into your paper. For example the reviewers indicated they were unsure what your paper was about? And the English grammar was difficult to understand. So I have allocated major revision which is good news, however I will allow 2 months so you can undertake a major rewrite or revision of your paper. Then I need to closely check your revised paper to ensure the feedback has been incorporated into the revised paper.

To revise your manuscript, log into <https://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/ijhma> and enter your Author Centre, where you will find your manuscript title listed under "Manuscripts with Decisions." Under "Actions," click on "Create a Revision." Your manuscript number has been appended to denote a revision.

You will be unable to make your revisions on the originally submitted version of the manuscript. Instead, revise your manuscript using a word processing program and save it on your computer. Please also highlight the changes to your manuscript within the document by using the track changes mode in MS Word or by using bold or coloured text. Once the revised manuscript is prepared, you can upload it and submit it through your Author Centre.

When submitting your revised manuscript, you will be able to respond to the comments made by the reviewer(s) in the space provided. You can use this space to document any changes you make to the original manuscript. In order to expedite the processing of the revised manuscript, please be as specific as possible in your response to the reviewer(s).

IMPORTANT: Your original files are available to you when you upload your revised manuscript. Please delete any redundant files before completing the submission.

Because we are trying to facilitate timely publication of manuscripts submitted to the International Journal of Housing Markets and Analysis, your revised manuscript should be uploaded before 13 July 2022. If it is not possible for you to submit your revision in a reasonable amount of time, we may have to consider your paper as a new submission.

Once again, thank you for submitting your manuscript to the International Journal of Housing Markets and Analysis and I look forward to receiving your revision as soon as possible.

Sincerely,
Prof. Richard Reed
Editor, International Journal of Housing Markets and Analysis
